Race Preview: Cotton Ron (7) is way over due a maiden win. He meets little of note here and will never get a better chance. African Twilight (5) made marked improvement last run for Clinton Binda whose horses generally do well on the poly. This is only his third start and is one to watch in the market. Baazigar (2) comes off a lengthy break but showed up well on debut. The stable has found some form so he must have a chance in a modest line-up. Sea Of Tears (4) takes on males and although Paul Gadsby's filly was a well beaten second last run she has a money chance in this line-up.

Race Preview: Spring Kiss (7) won first up on arrival from Cape Town and the Andre Nel yard has his form with a vengeance. The filly got a hefty rating first up in a handicap but is lightly raced and looks progressive. Lola Crawford's mare Gardenia (6) has put in two cracking efforts since returning from a break. She goes well over course and distance and will be a big threat to the selection. Michael Roberts sends out two lively contenders in Luna Eclipse (2) and Fabulous (3). Morgan La Fay (8) took full advantage of a drop in class last outing and is up in class with a penalty.

Race Preview: Dontstopmenow (5) is lightly raced and has been close-up in his last two. He should be the one to beat. Tommy The Kidd (6) has been consistent and was a close-up second last run. Pixie In Love (8) takes on males but Paul Gadsby's filly has shown her best recent form on the poly and she does not take on an overly competitive field. She has a definite money chance. La Dreamer (2) has disappointed at her last two after a strong of close-up finishes. She now takes to the poly track that could see her make marked improvement.

Race Preview: Warrior Bling (6) may just have needed his last run after making his KZN debut. He meets Caesura (2) on the same terms with a neck in it when last they met. Warrior Bling makes his poly debut and with a run under his girth he should be able to turn the tables. Pirate Prince (3) is lightly raced and has rocketed up the ratings. He takes on stronger here but both his wins have been on the poly and he is still on the up which puts him in with a strong chance. Flying Grace (8) was a distant second last time out but did show some improvement first up on the poly and can place.

She only took a three-point rise in the handicap and Glen Kotzen's filly has a definite chance in a tricky handicap. Byron Forster and the Andre Nel team are having a dream run and Everglades (6) makes her local debut. Bay Breeze (10) is comfortable over course and distance and has not been far behind in recent starts. She has been a beaten favourite at her last three and can make amends. Meredith Grey (2) has a light weight and was close-up at her last start. The stable is finding form and she can go close.

Guiseppi's Song (2) has his third run after a break and has been runner-up in his first two. He drops in class and trip and with the stable in good form he cannot be left out of any calculations. Former top rider now trainer Weichong Marwing had his first winner in KZN when Twosidestoastory (5) took to the poly and won well over course and distance.
