4	Oriental Bouquet	4	Oriental Bouquet 33%

Race Preview: Christophe Soumillon can get the ball rolling when he partners American Graffiti (1) for Sean Tarry. From the best of the draw with a world class rider aboard she must have a strong chance. Candice Bass-Robinson has a strong stable of two-year-olds and The Charleston (10) comes with strong Cape Town form. She has a wide draw as she goes the turn for the first time. Secret Identity (11) won well when finishing like a train to win her last start and must have a strong chance. Oriental Bouquet (4) ran well below form from a wide draw last outing and will improve on her last run.

RACE 2 6:25 PM (R$400,000) Greyville - 1300m

12	Ethanator

Race Preview: Outlaw King (4) has let the side down in his last two but had excuses at his penultimate start. He was second best behind the progressive Lucky Lad last outing but can go one better in this field. Main Defender (1) is unbeaten in two and gives newly licensed trainer Tony Peter his first runner on July day. The gelding improved lengths on his debut win and stays the trip from the best of the draw. Pure Predator (5) looks held by Main Defender but he does show promise and with some luck in the running he should be competitive. Ethanator (12) is still a maiden and drawn wide and could be the dark horse.

Race Preview: Lord William (5) was making late progress behind July-bound Winchester Mansion. He has consistent form and the step up in trip could suit. Nebraas (9) is first reserve for the Hollywoodbets Durban July and possibly a little unlucky not to make the field. However, his last run is best ignored and at best he will go close. Shango (8) is a past winner and was not far off them at his last start with a number of others in this race close-up. He tends to come good at this time of the year. Jimmy Don (15) Has a tricky draw and a big weight for a three-year-old over this trip which he tries for the first time.

Race Preview: Dean Kannemeyer could hold the key here with his two runners Runaway Song (5) and Rex Union (14). The former stepped up over ground in formidable fashion, running on from last two win the Track and Ball Derby in a canter. He got a hefty shunt in the handicap for that win but he now appears to have found his optimum trip. Rex Union has come on well since arriving in KZN. Arumugam (10) is an out-and-out stayer and comes from a yard that knows how to prep them. He has a handy weight and is 3kg better off with Future Pearl (4) who beat him the last time that they met.

Race Preview: Mrs Geriatrix (4) is unbeaten in four starts and was a comfortable winner of the Gr1 Allan Robertson beating a high class field. She goes the turn for the first time but has a good draw and can keep her record in tact for Sean Tarry. Biggest danger could be Distant Winter (6). Candice Bass-Robinson's filly has not been further back than second in five starts that included Cape Town features and comes off a winning double. Egyptian Mau (11) won well on debut and should give a good account. White Pearl (8) comes from a strong stable and both her wins have come over a similar trip.

Race Preview: Gimmeanotherchance (13) has a wide draw to contend with but he made good improvement after his maiden win to run out a facile winner of the Gatecrasher Stakes. The draw is a concern but he looks more than useful at this stage. The gray Guy Gibson (5) found traffic in the Gr1 Gold Medallion and may well have finished closer than third. The step up in trip should suit. Golden Tatjana (6) takes on a tough field of males but has yet to finish out of the money. Andy Coogle (3) is still a maiden but has reached green in both starts. The step up in trip from a plum draw can see him into the money.
