Race Preview: Form is a little thin and with two well-bred first timers in the race, the betting will be your best guide. Also, all take to the poly track for the first time. Ninety Nine Heros (4) found some log-shot betting support at his last two and the switch of surface could bring out the best. Global Ruler (2) has not been far back in two outings but does return from a break and the trainer comments that he may need the run. Turbo Boost (5) caught the eye on debut but judged on jockey bookings Ninety Nine Heros would appear to be the stable elect.

4	Woodland Glade
2	Sacred Lily
1	Musharayha
8	Doctor's Orders

Race Preview: Woodland Glade (4) has been close-up in all four of her starts to date. The switch in surface and the quality of field should see her close again. Ntombenhle (9) is drawn widest but has had experience on the poly and looks the most likely danger. Doctor's Orders (8) has shown some ability over the trip and the poly could see improvement while Darryl Moore sends the lightly raced Musharayha(1) over a trip and may be one to watch.

7	Red Roses Too

Race Preview: Poursomesugaronne (4) makes her poly debut but shows good pace and should be right there. There She Goes (2) was a comfortable winner on the Highveld last time out. She got a six-point rise in the handicap for her troubles but although he carries top weight here, she does look capable in a field where the form is a little thin. Hereinafter (3) is still game and her best recent runs have been on the poly. She will be right up there. Red Roses Too (7) will have needed her last outing after returning from a break. She is useful on her day.

9	Rafiki
2	Pascali
7	Exceed Expectation
3	Oh My Word Its Roy

Race Preview: The Andre Nel stable could hold the whip-hand here with Rafiki (9) and Exceed Expectation (7), both with useful current form and in a weak handicap field. Rafiki (9) would appear to be the stable elect given the riding arrangements. He was not far off when taking on much stronger last time out but got a five-point relief in the handicap. He is relatively lightly raced and can still improve. Exceed Expectation is seldom far off the winner and goes well on the poly. Biggest threat could come from Pascali (2) trained by KZN Champion Trainer Garth Puller.

RACE 4		8:05 PM		(R$100,000)		Greyville Polytrack		- 1900m

1	Duke Of Africa
6	Johnny The Thief
9	Tiger Spring
5	King Bavarian

Race Preview: Duke Of Africa (1) goes well over this trip on the poly and can open his account for Frank Robinson. Johnny The Thief (6) is a recently turned three-year-old who has finished runner-up in three of his four starts. He stays the trip and with Gavin Lerena taking the ride he will be a big threat to Duke Of Africa. Tiger Spring (9) has made recent improvement on the poly and with his 1.5kg allowance courtesy of Rachel Venniker he must come into contention. King Bavarian (5) was narrowly ahead of Tiger Spring when last they met and there should not be much between them.

Race Preview: Blackwhitedynamite (8) takes a drop in class and ratings. His last win came on the poly and he may be the horse to beat in a competitive handicap. Purple Operator (5) goes well on the poly and is down in class. He is back over his preferred trip and should give another solid performance. Preemptive Strike (4) has been going up in the handicap in spite of his advancing age and got a two-point raise after being narrowly beaten over course and distance. Brass Bell (9) stable companion to Purple Operator, improved in his first run since relocating from PE. He could be the surprise package.

Race Preview: Asiye Phambili (3) showed up well first run for her new stable. She was well fancied on July day before the lights went out and this could be her consolation although it will not be easy. Magical Flight (1) won her last start in her only outing on the poly, not unexpected for an older horse with smart form in strong company. She can follow up. Alphabetty (7) has only missed a cheque twice in eight outings. She gets first time blinkers and must have a strong chance. Toto (5) showed some improvement last run when taking on much stronger and has a money chance.

Race Preview: Brave Voyager (5) has been placed in his last four starts on the poly and was narrowly beaten last time out. He must have a strong chance on that last showing. Impartial(2) has been showing steady recent improvement and with only 52.5kg to shoulder on his referred surface he is not without a prayer. Hippocrates (9) is way better than his last effort over course and distance. He has a tricky draw but on his best form can overcome it. Farland (6) was well beaten by Leslies Pathtofame (7) but the latter got a seven-point jump in the handicap and Farland should be able to turn the tables.
