Race Preview: Greenlight Legend (3) has made improvement with each outing and was running on well on the poly last time out. She has drawn well and must have a strong chance. Arverni Princess (12) has drawn wide but she has shown up well in two sprints and looks primed for this. Mountainsofthemoon (8) was a beaten short-priced favourite last start. She also steps up in trip but should enjoy the extra given her pedigree. Porto Zante (4) improved second time out but is another going the trip for the first time. She has the better draw.

Race Preview: Rapidash (12) goes this trip for the first time but was a game winner over shorter last outing. He has drawn wide but looks progressive. Professor Lupin (1) is still a maiden but does show some promise. He ran a fair race on the poly last start but does appear to be more effective on the turf. Down By The River (7) has come on nicely with each outing and was close-up in the soft last run. Stable companion Bristol Hercules (11) made a smart debut at lengthy odds and is sure to have come on with the experience.

Race Preview: Paul Gadsby holds a strong hand with the two-year-old Full Of Magic (4) and the year older Sea Of Tears (5). Both are in goods form but the younger filly goes well over course and distance and could be the stable pick. Jane's Vision (10) has improved with each outing. She was running on smartly over course and distance last outing and should make a bold bid for Michael Roberts. Sean Tarry's filly Lady Greensleeves (3) returns from a lengthy break after trying further. It's a long road to come to have a crack at a maiden.

Race Preview: Plaza Accord (10) was a well-supported favourite on debut but found one too good. He can make amends in what stacks up to be modest opposition although there are a few first timers to keep an eye on. Potent Captain (2) raced green in a promising debut behind stable companion Honshu. He is sure to come on from that effort. Benni In The Area (11) has had a few chances for Gary Rich but his best recent effort has been over course and distance. When going down narrowly. Mar Del Plata (16) was well beaten on debut but did find some market support and is one to watch.

Race Preview: Thisiswhatmeans (16) has been rested after starting favourite at his last two starts for Peter Muscutt. The break may have done him the world of good and he gets another chance. Gorgeous Guy (13) almost caused a major boil-over second time out over course and distance, just finding one better. A repeat should see him in the firing line. Master Josh (10) has been trying further but has been runner-up at his last three. This will be his second run after a break and back to a sprint for Alyson Wright. It is best to ignore the last run by Gauteng visitor Quixote (4) as his form prior was promising.

Race Preview: The Duncan Howells-trained Chelsea Blue (7) is back on her favourite surface and can make amends for her disappointing last effort. Mike Miller saddles Palm Breeze (5) who is way better than her last effort where she was compromised by a wide draw. She goes well this course and distance. Kileigh's Fate (4) is not the easiest at the gate but has improved in blinkers. She switches back to the turf. Cinnamon Blush (8) was a cracking second last outing. She has not been far back since shedding her maiden and a repeat of her last start could see Wendy Whitehead in the winner's circle.

Race Preview: Wide open handicap. Ancient Epic (5) is in cracking form over the distance but there should be very little between her Sabatini (3), Our Emily (1) and Sweet Symphony (2). Throw in Amarandi (4) and it is little more than a guessing game. However, Ancient Epic could have the upper hand and is taken to get home ahead of Amarandi and Sabatini with Our Emily not far behind.
