Race Preview: Joker Man (1) bids for his sixth win on the bounce and has won his last two over a mile. He has the best of the draw and will be a worthy favourite on the day. Its raining william (4) has useful form in good company over this trip and should be competitive from a good draw. There should not be much between Get Impressed (2) and Money Heist (11) the two having met last time out. Get Impressed is now 1kg better off at the weights which could be enough for him to turn the tables.

Race Preview: Rodeo Drive (2) has not been out of the first two in five outings and from a good draw she rates the one to beat. Just Reckless (7) has been up against Quid Pro Quo at her last two and not beaten far. She should prefer this shorter trip. Little Ballerina (4) has a much better draw over a more suitable trip and she now knows the course. Dark Winter (8) had been disappointing in her three local starts but fitted with blinkers last time out she was a runaway winner. She does face a lot stronger here but with the blinkers appear to have brought her on.

Race Preview: Cats Pajamas (5) is back over a sprint with the blinkers back on. Dantonfromsandton (7) beat Chocolate Soldier (2) when meeting winners in his maiden victory. He has come on in blinkers and won well on the poly last time out. He has the added backing of Sean Tarry and Richard Fourie. Buffalo Storm Cody (3) cruised to a nine-length victory on debut but then found Proceed too hot to handle next time out finishing five lengths behind. That was only his second start and should come on from that effort. Impact Investor (9) improved nicely at his second run in KZN and should strip at his peak.

Race Preview: Quid Pro Quo (12) has a wide draw to contend with as she attempts to make this her fifth win in a row and will undoubtedly be ridden in similar fashion so the draw should not be too much of a concern. Piere Strydom stays with the ride for Fatal Flaw (7) and she is proven over the trip. Lock And Key (13) gets Keagan de Melo aboard but regular pilot Richard Fourie has opted to take his chances on stable companion Whistle The Tune (4) who was a well-beaten third behind Quid Pro Quo last time out. She has the better draw and can finish a little closer.

Race Preview: Sean Tarry holds a strong hand in this contest. He saddles Gr1 Gold Medallion winner Proceed (8), G2 Golden Horseshoe winner Cosmic Speed (9) and Legend Of Arthur (13) a winner of two of his four starts. Great Plains (4) ran no sort of race in the Golden Horseshoe and that effort is best ignored. Prior to that he came from the clouds to win comfortably. The extra furlong will suit and Keagan de Melo, fresh from his first stint in Hong Kong, will no doubt get the best out of him although the stable has been quiet this winter.

Race Preview: Future Pearl (6) is the country's top stayer and won this race with ease last year. Nebraas (5) has been improving with every run since being fitted with blinkers. He has dropped in the handicap and now looks to be off a competitive mark. The extra furlong and the weight turnover should see Shoot The Rapids (15) turn the tables on his stable companion Madison Valley (7). Master Redoute (3) found plenty of trouble in the July and did well to finish five lengths off the winner. He won the Western Cape Stayers over 2800m to this trip should suit.

Race Preview: Lucky Lad (13) can cement himself as the country's top sprinter as he can overcome a wide draw. At My Command (5) has a much better draw this time around. I Am Giant (3) was not so lucky from his wide draw in the Post Merchants but was only four lengths back to the winner. In two previous starts he had run Lucky Lad to within a length and he too has a much more favourable gate. Golden Sickle (1) didn't feature in the Merchants but prior to that had run star sprinter Thunderstuck to a neck in the Gr1 Computaform Sprint. This course should suit from her pole position draw.

Muzi Yeni has opted to partner July third Royal Victory (8) ahead of Gr1 Hollywoodbets Gold Challenge winner Dave The King (9) with Richard Fourie taking over in the saddle for Mike de Kock. Flag Man (6) is sure to be dropped out this time around and given a half decent pace he should be running hard at the leaders. Cousin Casey (1) is well suited to this trip.
