Race Preview: Mc Dazzler (2) who has been costly to follow having been a beaten favourite on a number of occasions. He tends not to finish off his races but he should get it right sooner rather than later. Stable companion Real War (4) could be his biggest danger. He makes his poly debut but should put in a strong showing. Mr Hotstepper (8) made a promising debut behind Cat's Pajamas but has not been out since April. He may need it but is one to watch in the betting. Tickalox (5) made sudden improvement last run and a repeat can see him involved again.

Race Preview: Art Nouveau (2) improved nicely second time out for Mike Miller. Although well beaten by the runaway winner she was running on stoutly and could well show further improvement over this trip. Wendy Whitehead sends out Perfectly Picked (1) who has been knocking at the door of late. She goes well this trip and meets a modest line-up. Yellow Jacket (9) has consistent form over shorter. She like to race handy and with a 4kg claimer aboard she could go all the way for Kom Naidoo. Sascha's Dream (3) was not far back in her debut sprint and could much prefer this distance.

He takes a big step up in class but only has 52kg to shoulder. Allaroundtheworld (2) was a little disappointing last run but the 2300m may have been a little out of his compass. Blazing Light (3) is seldom too far back and goes well over course and distance. On his best form he will go close.

He has a fair weight but is over his best distance. Landseer (2) was a recent maiden winner and although the form has not panned out quite as expected Andre Nel's runner is lightly raced and still improving. Tom's Act (9) is way better than his last effort on the turf and is back on his preferred surface. Doug Campbell has replaced the cheek pieces with blinkers which could make the difference.

Race Preview: Million Voices (2) makes her poly debut and with a brace of runs under her girth she should prove difficult to beat. Avernian Goddess (7) was outpaced late behind She's A Machine over 1400m last time out. That form has been franked but she shed her maiden over course and distance and has yet to finish out of the money in six starts. Princess Hannah (4) made major improvement when winning over course and distance last time out. Visiting Heirloom (6) has not been far back at her last two over the Turffontein inner track and the switch to the poly could bring out the best.

The form of those maiden races has been franked and one can expect an improved effort. Inggwele (5) has shown up well in both starts since beating Burning Man in the maidens He shows some promise and the switch to the poly could suit. Guardia Regine (2) has shown some consistent Highveld form. He makes the trip to make his poly debut and any market support should be taken seriously.

Race Preview: Irish Luck (2) has been coming down in the ratings and Duncan Howells appears to have picked the right race with Muzi Yeni taking over in the saddle from apprentice James Lihaba. Stars In Heaven (8) has shown up well in two starts since returning from the Cape. This is his third run after a break he will strip close to his peak. Hippocrates (1) took advantage of a drop in class to win comfortably last time out. He got a four-point raise in the handicap but from the best of the draw he can go in again. Professor Lupin (4) shed his maiden over course and distance and won well in yielding going on the turf last run.
