SELECTIONS	SCOTTSVILLE	800M DISTANCE	BEST TIME 800M
1 Water Hyacinth
5 Bell Of Angelus
6 Captains Envy
4 Treasure Island

Race Preview: All first timers but judging on trainer's comments, this looks to be a Mike Miller benefit. Bell Of Angelus (5) with Tristan Godden aboard would appear to be the stable elect but Mathew Thackeray upstaged Godden last Sunday and partners Captains Envy (6) while Water Hyacinth (1) has 4kg claimer Jacey Botes aboard and could make them all run.

RACE 2 7:05 PM (R87,750) Scottsville -- 1000m

4 Miss Mayfly			3 Roy's Grace 0:59.05
			4 Miss Mayfly 0:59.16

Race Preview: Roy's Grace (3) has been making steady progress and although two lengths behind Dressedtothenines (5) last time out there does appear to more improvement to come from Paul Gadsby's filly and can turn the tables on Dressedtothenines who has finished runner-up at her last two, the last over course and distance. She should be in the firing line with a 4kg claimer up. Come Spies raids with Radiant Heat (1) who has patchy Highveld form but is capable on her day. She also has a 4kg claimer aboard. Miss Mayfly (4) has one good race to her credit and a repeat could see her into the money.

RACE 3 7:40 PM (R90,000) Scottsville -- 1950m

3 La Vida Loca	11%		6 Walkie Talkie 2:02.91
8 Sanbeenee	7%
9 Bel Giocatore

Race Preview: Mocha Blend (1) made a smart debut for Frank Robertson when running on strongly behind Meritorious who was well fancied next time out but took exception to the poly kick-back. This trip should suit and Mocha Blend could prove too classy. La Vida Loca (3) has improved slowly in her first three local outings and the step up in trip should suit Glen Kotzen's filly. There should be little between Sanbeenee (8) and Bel Giocatore (9) with a length between them when last they met. The latter gets first time blinkers so could turn the tables.

RACE 4 8:15 PM (R90,000) Scottsville -- 2400m

Race Preview: Captain Oliver (1) won well second time out for Frikkie Greyling as he was finishing strongly to land the spoils. On that evidence he should easily stay the extra. Lucretius (4) is not the easiest to catch 'right' as he has his quirks but can build on his last win. Mr Fixit (3) romped home for Paul Lafferty in his maiden win and appeared to enjoy the step up in trip. Rainbow Of Roses (8) was a runaway maiden winner over the distance last time out and that form has held up quite well. She gets a 4kg claimer aboard so could follow up.

3 Safe And Sound	33%	5 Hot Strike 33%	9 Mountainsofthemoon 1:36.52

Race Preview: Faizah (8) showed up well when taking on much stronger last time out. Gareth van Zyl's filly is seldom far back and should put in a good effort in this company in spite of top weight. One Smart Cookie (4) is useful and Tienie Prinsloo steps her up to a mile. She was running on nicely over a furlong shorter last time out so this trip should suit. Gorgeous Girl (7) was a well beaten second last run but the winner, Warrior Royale was a good second to the smart Bevies Delight last Sunday. Duncan Howells saddles Safe And Sound (3) who made most of the running to win her last race and can go forward again.

Race Preview: Boom Shakalaka (3) won his maiden well but disappointed when favourite at his first handicap attempts. He is down in class and has also had three-points relief in the ratings. Given the step up in trip, Glen Kotzen's runner could be on the mark. Burning Man (7) has recently changed stables and Frickie Greyling has dropped him in trip after one outing for the yard. He is one to watch. Stuart Ferrie sends out Teatime Tipple (5) who has been close-up at his last two and is over his optimum trip. Gimmethgoodlife (1) was a recent maiden winner when stepped up in trip.

Race Preview: Golden Aspen (9) is seldom far off the winner and Come Spies appears to have picked the right race for her 10th success. She takes a big drop in class and will be competitive. Happy Analia (7) is fit having run twice in successive months and finishing close-up. Izibulo (2) has been rested but she beat a useful filly in Warrior Royale when shedding her maiden. She may just need this but Garth Puller has also engaged a 4kg claimer. Princess Palace (6) has only had six runs for a single win. She has been trying a little further of late but gets first time cheek pieces.

Race Preview: Vihaan's Web (6) is lightly raced but does appear to have plenty of ability. He was a comfortable maiden winner at just his third start and can follow up. Fine One (3) showed plenty of promise early in his career and his last start was his first back from a rest. He has a big weight to shoulder but does look more than capable. Stable companion Licence To Thrill (7) goes well this course and can cause an upset. Flight Path (1) took an eight-point shunt up the handicap for his last win but does appear to have come to hand of late and can follow up.
