Race Preview: Comic Relief (3) was a comfortable winner on debut and could well prove to be the best of the miller runners. Siesta Sunset (6) won well on debut in spite of drifting off the boards in the face of support for stable companion Holds The Key (4) who took another two races to shed his maiden. Black Frost (8) found some significant market support but was very green in the running and sure to come on from that effort.

Race Preview: Who Blinked (6) has made steady improvement and being touched off over the distance when starting at cramped odds. Zena Rose (1) has come to hand nicely for Duncan Howells and Kabelo Matsunyane should have a good understanding of his mount this being his third start aboard. One Armed Bandit (12) tried much further last run but is back to what looks to be a more suitable trip. Our Lady Fate (9) has been well supported in the market when trying further but the drop in trip could maybe be the better option.

Race Preview: Real War (1) was much improved last run when back on turf and Dean Kannemeyer has declared first time blinkers which could make all the difference. Top Seed (6) has not been out since making his debut in May but Mike de Kock's runner looks more than capable of good improvement. Good Living (10) has had a few chances but has never been too far back and should be in the shake-up again in a field where there could be a few surprises. Emoyeni (3) was a well beaten second on debut but should come on from that effort.

Race Preview: Sundance Kid (11) has the widest draw to contend with but has shown useful form in good company at recent outings. Rachel Venniker stays aboard could prove good enough to shoulder top weight to victory. Drawn alongside is Royal Swan Master (10) who has been costly to follow. Never far back he also never quite gets there. Officer In Command (4) has been holding form well and has won over the course. He may prove the best again. I Salute You (3) landed the odds last run when favourite. It is lightly raced and appears to be on the up.

Race Preview: Connery (5) will have plenty of supporters as he tries for six-in-a-row but it becomes more and more difficult. As he steps up in class. Calantha (10) has won two of her four starts and was comfortable last time out. She looks useful and gets plenty of weight. Good Traveller (7) finally win under his girth when back over his optimum trip. He has good form on this course. Bourbon Warrior (3) is back from a break but given that he has won two of this four starts, that could mean anything.

Race Preview: William Robertson (3) back on one of his favourite courses and is well in at the weights with most. His recent form his difficult to fault and should start at the top of the boards again. Sun Blushed (9) is smart on his day and was only three lengths back last time. This was his first run back since finishing a length back and the outing should have sharpened him up. Khethiwe's Destiny (2) has only once been out of the money. She may need this but is clearly talented. Donquerari (7) is a tough warrior last time out. He has it all to do at the weights but has a money chance.

Imilenzeyokududuma (4) won well in the Christmas Handicap and although going up four points but can follow up from a good draw. Celtic Beauty (6) was strongly fancied to win the Flamboyant Stakes on Boxing Day but first time blinkers did not have the desired effort and they come off. Mary's Greenlight (10) and Miss Platina (2) finished ahead of her but both are worse off at the weights and Celtic Beauty could make amends.

Race Preview: Go Like Flo (1) was touched off in her local debut and with a run under her girth and a step up in trip from the best of the draw she could prove to be the horse to beat. Lucrative (2) is 1kg worse off with Go Like Flo after getting the better of her last time out but the mare could with a run under her girth and a weight turnover could see her turn the tables. Spirit Of Levana (5) and Just Reckless (7) both make their seasonal debuts after showing up in smart juvenile. Word from the stables is that both may just need it but class could tell.

Race Preview: Ibhele (9) to a peak and this looks the right race. He does have top weight but should also be at his peak in spite of finishing behind the consistent Professor Lupin (7) when last they met. They meet on the same weight terms but the younger rival could have more to come with first time blinkers. Andy Coogle (10) has been much improved at recent starts and must be considered in all bets. Northern Warrior (6) is a course and distance specialist and although is returning from a break.
