Race Preview: Captain Jon Snow was heavily supported in the market on debut, he was very green and stayed on strongly towards the end of the race, he should improve quite a bit from that run and will go very close to winning here. North Point was gelded on 26 Nov 2024, he ran a fair race on debut behind the unbeaten Black Cheetah, he should enjoy the step up in trip to 1000m, watch him closely. The balance of the field are first timers, watch them in the parade ring, watch the market and watch them closely when they move to the start.

Race Preview: Dupont Emerald was slowly away on debut and still managed to run third. Smarter this time and with improvement very likely, she gets a narrow vote to score. Exceedingly Glam has finished runner-up in her last three starts and should fight out the finish. Great Notion has been very consistent so far and is clearly not out of it. Tipperary showed improvement back in a sprint last time out and can earn some more money. Gimme A Call is bred in the purple and would not be a surprise winner.

Race Preview: Okavango ran a lovely race behind his stable companion last time when finishing third, he hasn't had the best of draws in his last two starts, now that he gets a decent draw and drops back in trip to 1600m, he should go very close to winning. Wehaveasituation gets the blinkers fitted, she ran on strongly in her most recent start behind Warbird, from a good draw, there should be absolutely no excuses for this filly, include her into all bets. War Hawk loved the step up in trip on 23 Nov behind Beer With The Boys, this looks to be a good race for him to be very competitive again. Cosmic Rhythm is much better than his most recent start, he should enjoy the drop in trip, include him into the Quartets at a decent price.

Race Preview: Winds Of Change has yet to win a race and is rated 107. He ran some good races in Group 1 company in his last two starts and if fit from a break he should win this race. Copper Cliff needed his first run after gelding and could show vast improvement. Kwagga Blitz is unreliable but is also capable of earning some money. Paul Revere has improved of late and should contest the finish. Ring A Ling has just had the two starts and she has not run badly in either of them and if there is to be a serious challenge to Winds Of Change then this filly might be it.

Race Preview: Circumbendibus gets the blinkers fitted on Saturday afternoon, he has been very consistent, he should have a massive winning chance in this field. Palancar ran a much better race last time when staying on nicely for third, he is clearly improving with every start and must be included into the play. Tripping Thunder drops in trip and gets the blinkers fitted, he is a lovely looking individual that should get better with every start, on his best form, he will have a good place chance here. Mr Fox was gelded on 10 Dec, he never really got into the race last time when finishing just over six lengths behind Native Ruler, the drop in trip and the gelding could help him improve.

Race Preview: Trainer Sean Tarry has a very strong hand with Hotarubi and Let's Go Now. Both are in good form and should fight out the finish. This distance seems ideal Hotarubi and he gets the vote to score. Slinky Mapimpi is in very good form but does have to give both Tarry runners weight. Guy Gibson runs his best races in defeat and that should be the case again. Stable companions Parisian Walkway and Sukhumvit both get good weight from their rivals but have to prove their class.

Race Preview: Towers Of Gold was impressive when taking out a handicap last time out. He got a 8-point penalty for that win but he is receiving chunks of weight from rival Captainofthegreen and can follow up. Captainofthegreen was undone by being on the wrong side of the track in the WSB Grand Heritage and should bounce back and be a real threat to these rivals. Imperial Master lacks a finish when he needs it most but can earn some more money. Littlemarysunshine is unreliable but capable of popping up in a place. Forgiveness and Royal Edition are in good form and are not out of it.

Race Preview: Englefield Green has been knocking on the door for quite some time now, she has some excellent form to her name, if she gets some luck in running from a bad draw here, she will go very close to winning. Wild Applause has been rested for 64 days, she ran a terrific second last time in a big field behind Back At The George, she should enjoy the step up in trip to 1400m again from a good draw, there is no doubt she will be competitive in this tricky race. Loui's Star had no luck in running on 28 Dec when she finished fast for third, she has a lovely action, in hope that she gets the right run in transit here, she will go close. Rahhabba ran a fair race behind Exquisite on 11 Dec, she is still improving and must be included into all bets.

Race Preview: Juniper Green needed her local debut. She has lost her way after a promising start to her career. If she comes back to herself she is quite capable of winning a race like this. Kings Again won nicely on debut but did not repeat it last time out. Golden Aspen has a place chance. Green Sapphire and Pretty Precious will both have high confidence levels after their maiden victories and could be better than their handicap marks. Raining Rubies flopped last time out but is capable of an upset. Take Your Place has been much improved of late and is not out of it.

Race Preview: Future Frequency has improved with every start, he should love the step up in trip to 1800m from a good draw, he looks to be one of the better bets on the card. Landoftherisingsun was given every chance by jockey Richard Fourie last time when staying on for third behind Green Garnet, the yard thinks highly of this individual, if he puts his best foot forward on Saturday afternoon, he will be a major threat for Future Frequency. Bombers In The Sky fought hard to the line on the 11th of December when running a short head second to Ardabil, his form is excellent, and he must be included into all bets. Ahead Of The Facts improved nicely with the step up in trip in his last start, with a similar performance again, he will be right there in the money.

Race Preview: Almond Sea has been unlucky of late. She has been slow away in her last two starts. If jumping on terms she may be too speedy for these rivals. Rodeo Drive proved in need of her last run. She will strip fitter this time and should fight out the finish. Sorceress Supreme reminded us what she is capable of with a good win last time out and is not out of it. Pointer and Poblano probably need to find a few lengths to beat those selected above them but can earn some money.

Race Preview: Call To Unite is as honest as they come, he has done well in the staying races, with some luck in running from a tricky draw and dropping in trip, he will be one of the leading lights in a very tough race. Willie John ran a fair race behind The Grey King on 22 Dec, he is quite a tricky horse to ride, on his day, he could win a race like this easily, include him into the play from a good draw. Future Turn is much better than his last start, ignore that, he is a consistent gelding that enjoys this trip of 1600m, he should bounce back to form and run a cracker for the connections. Promettere ran a much better race last time when beaten just over two lengths by the winner, he will be given every chance by champion jockey Richard Fourie, watch him.

Race Preview: Beamonesque returns to a handicap and has not been beaten too far in his recent runs so could be the right one. Virgin River is very consistent and should be involved with the finish yet again. Dontshootherbarman carries a lot of weight but could earn some minor money. Halcyon returns from a break but does have the ability and would not be a surprise winner. Big Boy Bruce flopped last week but the going should be a bit firmer this time and he could be a lively danger.

Race Preview: From A Distance won like a smart filly on 14 Dec, she raced just off the speed and then quickened up in excellent fashion to win a convincing race, she is progressive and should love the step up in trip from a good draw, she could quite easily win again off this rating. La Divina won a gutsy race last time, she controlled the race from the front and stayed on strongly to win well, from a decent draw again in a very similar field, she will be competitive. Swiatek gets a pull in the weights with La Divina, she has been so consistent since winning her maiden on 8 Oct, there is no reason why she shouldn't run a huge race again, include her. Alltheboysiloved can be aggressive in her races, if she relaxes early from a wide draw, she will be doing good work late.

Race Preview: Fly Futura ran a much better race on 18 Dec behind the progressive Groovejet, he stayed on well to finish third just under two lengths behind the winner, racing off the same rating of 74, he should go well in this very difficult race. Pinot Grigio looks to be improving with every start, he ran a great race last time when finishing fourth, at the weights and from a tricky draw, life won't be easy for him, but he is still very much improving, with the right run in transit, he could be a factor in the finish. Heliotrope never runs a bad race, she has done exceptionally well for the connections, she stays well enough and her form is good, include her into all bets. Touchdown has run some decent races of late, the step up in trip could help him get closer.
