Race Preview: Dawn's Early Light ran a lovely race behind Bel Canto Dream on the 15th of February, he drops in trip for this maiden plate on Saturday afternoon, it doesn't look to be the strongest of races, if he can build on his last performance, he will be hard to beat. Undercover Lover ran a much better race last time, there should be no excuses for this individual from a good draw, he must be respected at a decent price. Keep Happy ran a fair race on debut behind Rahhabba, unfortunately she has drawn poorly in this race, with some luck in running, she could make big improvement and trouble them in the finish. Regina Tamara will need to improve quite a bit to win, she ran a much better race on the 22nd of December, on her best form she could earn some money for the connections.

Race Preview: Pumpkin Pie ran on well once the penny had dropped to finish 2nd on debut over 1160m and on the evidence of that performance with the experience under his belt, any improvement over this extended trip could see him go one better. Fillies Cape Saffron and Wearingofthegreen, with the benefit of a handy 3kg sex allowances, have the form and experience to trouble the selection. Seventh Fleet and Arctic Owl are open to improvement on their reappearances after gelding, while lightly raced Jabberwocky also has scope for progress.

Race Preview: Rockaroundtheclock made good improvement from his first run into his second run, the step up in trip should unlock further improvement from this gelding, if he can beat the draw, he will go close to winning. New World has run two fair races up the straight at Hollywoodbets Kenilworth, he stayed on well late behind Malmesbury Missile on the 5th of February, if he handles the track and the turn on Saturday afternoon, he could be some value in this wide open race. Supposeyou'veheard ran a great race on debut behind Ireland Forever, he looks like the type that will improve nicely with every start, include him into all bets. Better Man was well beaten on debut behind the talented Parental Guidance, he is a lovely looking colt that should improve in his second start, watch him closely.

Rich Folks Hoax finished powerfully to win well in his last start, he will be stalking the speed from a good draw, watch him closely, he can win a race like this quite easily. Race Preview: Trippi's Silk has run two very good seconds in his last two starts, at this level, he will always have a good winning chance, despite the big weight on his back, he is undoubtedly the horse they all need to beat. Tambourine Man quickened up in devastating fashion to beat Trippi's Silk last time, he is consistent but at the same time needs a particular ride, if the race works out for him from a good draw, he will be competitive again. True Horizon never really runs a bad race, she is honest, and she tries hard, on her best form, she could sneak into the places. Augusta Blue is much better than his recent form, watch him closely at a decent price, he could be running on late into the Quartet.

Race Preview: Wild Intent wasn't disgraced in a 1800m Cape Town Grade 3 six weeks ago but is better than that performance suggests and a bold showing is expected on his Highveld reappearance. Well-related One More Star is maturing and would've tightened up after an encouraging comeback 2nd over 2000m so should be competitive. Towers Of Gold won his only start over this distance and is also weighted to be competitive. However, preference is for unbeaten Immediate Edge who confirmed the promise of his 1600m debut win by winning on handicap debut over this trip - and that form has been boosted since.

Race Preview: Crimson King could be in better form ahead of his title defence. Last-start course-and-distance scorer Marauding Horde carries a 6-point penalty but should remain competitive for victory. However, both Battleground and Raiseahallelujah are weighted to turn the tables on these revised terms. Arumugam, Twenty Drachma's and Vesuvio aren't taken lightly under handy galloping weights. A chance, though, is worth taking on Thunee Playa who is at the top of his game and unexposed over this distance. With any improvement over this extended trip, he could represent the value in this Listed contest.

Race Preview: Miss World ran a super race on the 11th of February behind Trip To Maputo, she has lots of ability, from a good draw here, she will get the run of the race, if she is good enough, she should win. Callmegetrix is very consistent, she fought hard to win the Clapham Stakes well in a driving finish, the drop in trip to 1250m is the only concern, she will be just behind the leaders and running on strongly late, include her into all bets. War Chariot could be the value play in this wide-open race, he needs a particular ride, if the race works out for him, he will be storming home late at a decent price. Kelp Forest never really quickened in his last start, he is much better than that, from a wide draw, he will be ridden for some luck, and should be running on well, watch him closely.

Race Preview: To The Rescue has found his niche adopting frontrunning tactics and will likely find the lead easily. He was a game-in-defeat 4th over track and trip last time at a higher level and needs only to produce a similar performance to resume winnings ways, especially if allowed an uncontested lead. Rosy Lemon and Afraad are consistent hard-knockers with the means to trouble the selection, though Arlington Action and Coffeeberry are also capable of making their presence felt. Romeo's Magic is another with earning potential.

Race Preview: Jou Lekker Ding ran on smartly to win a good race on the 11th of February, she was given three points for that victory at Hollywoodbets Kenilworth, again she finds a good race to be competitive, she must be included into all bets. Pilot Flame ran a nice race behind Give Me Everything on the 5th of February, she has dropped back in trip to 1250m, and she gets the services of Richard Fourie, watch her closely, she will be right there from a good draw. Little Miss Pink can be a tricky ride, she ran a lovely race over the sprint trip last time behind Back At The George, she can finish powerfully, jockey Oswald Noach gets on well with this mare, she could be some value. Tanneron has run two very good races of late, unfortunately she will need lots of luck in running from a poor draw.

Race Preview: Last-start maiden winners Maverick Queen and Just Jazzed Up are unexposed fillies with scope for further progress. Both have genuine winning chances, as do fellow 3yo fillies Quasikat and Blizzard Snow who have the form and experience that will stand them in good stead. Exceedingly Glam will appreciate reverting to this shorter trip and should be competitive too. Consistent One Party, stable companion Valieva and Highveld returnee Happy Wives, after a last-start Cape Town maiden success, appeal most of the remainder.
