Race Preview: Littlemisssplendid acquitted herself well on debut against male opposition, including former winners. She would've benefitted from that experience and with natural improvement should play a leading role at the finish. Princess Keira also caught the eye when 4th in a feature last time and she needn't improve much to have a say in the outcome. Vanakkam, Matter Of Trust and Delaware River are well-bred newcomers worth a market check on debut.

Race Preview: Old Fashioned sets the standard on all exposed form and he needn't improve a great deal to go one better after a last-start 2nd. Ringho and Turf Guru are held by that rival but have earning potential. A bigger threat, however, will likely come from returning Hemisphere who is open to any amount of improvement on his reappearance. Alesian Beau fits a similar profile so shouldn't be taken lightly.

3 Good For You
8 Diamond Days
2 So American
5 Randolph Hearst

Race Preview: Good For You ran a cracking race in the Grade 3 Cape Nursery last time behind Direct Hit, he gets a good draw here and the blinkers have been fitted, he will be very hard to beat. Diamond Days improved nicely to run a better race behind Pay The Palace on the 8th of March at Hollywoodbets Durbanville, he drops back in trip and gets the services of champion jockey Richard Fourie on Saturday, if he gets some luck in running from a wide draw, he could earn some money for the connections. So American comes back to the races from a break and gelding, he would need to improve quite a bit to win a race like this, but he has got experience on his side, and he has a good draw, he could run into the places at a decent price. There are some very well-bred first timers in the race, watch the market and watch them move down to the start.

Race Preview: Duchess Of Paloma ran a much better race behind Rahhabba on the 11th of February at Hollywoodbets Kenilworth, she finds a winnable race on Saturday, and she gets the services of Luke Coleman, from a good draw, there should be no excuses for this filly, she will go very close to winning. Joueur De Flute comes back to the track from a long rest and gelding, ignore his last run, if he doesn't need the run badly and he gets some luck in running, he will have a big winning chance here. Johnny Drama improved nicely last time behind Dawn's Early Light, he stayed on well with the blinkers fitted, if he can build on that performance, he could trouble them in the finish. Stu's Girl is much better than her last run, she drops in trip and could sneak into the places.

Race Preview: Regulation absolutely took off late to run a great second behind Green Garnet on the 22nd of February, he is a smart gelding that is improving with every run, he will love the step up in trip on Saturday afternoon, he should go very close to winning a race like this. Kwite A King never runs a bad race, he stayed on really well behind La Pulga last time, he should be on the premises late with jockey Richard Fourie in the saddle from a good draw. Dubbelosix won his maiden exceptionally well on the 5th of March, he looks progressive and should keep improving with every start, he must be respected here. Chollima quickened up smartly to win a good race on the 11th of February at Hollywoodbets Kenilworth, he was penalised six points for that victory, but jockey Ashton Arries knows him well and he could be competitive late.

Race Preview: Apache Son, Total Surrender and Star Coin are closely matched on the form of a recent meeting but it could pay to side with the latter who is better off on these revised weight terms. Consistent stablemate Birthright also has legitimate eachway credentials under joint bottom weight. Hawkbill, Whafeef and even Flashy Apache shouldn't be underestimated.

Race Preview: My Only Weakness finished strongly late to win well last time, she was only given two points for that victory, the blinkers have been removed on Saturday, if she gets some luck in running from a wide draw, she will have a good winning chance again. Family Power had absolutely no luck in running last time, she was taken up for several strides going through the 300m mark, unfortunately the draw won't help her chances on Saturday, but she will be running on strongly, watch her late. Fun Zone is as honest as they come, she needs a particular ride, if the race works out for her, she could easily trouble them in the finish. Lady Look Alike has dropped nicely in the ratings, she could be some value in what looks a tough race on paper.

Race Preview: Karate Kid was the subject of spirited betting support in a feature last time but fluffed his chances at the start. He shouldn't be hastily condemned and could well make amends at the expense of former stable companion Mount Pilatus who joined his current yard after the Tommy Hotspur. Quantum Theory and Dreamland have the form and experience to get into the picture, as do best-weighted stablemates Mrs Browning and Winter Greeting.

Race Preview: Electric Feels ran on well from a long way back in her last start, she tries hard, her form is very good, there is no doubt she will be attacking the line hard from a nice draw. Champagne Mac ran a decent race last time with the blinkers on, he is currently racing off a dangerous rating, if he can beat the draw here, he will be right there in the finish. Country Time moved up like a winner in her last start behind Try Me, she must be respected off this rating of 53, she will be stalking the speed and running on powerfully late. Poetic Princess won a good enough race last time in PE, she was heavily supported in the market and got the job done, now that she has that confidence booster under the belt, she could certainly improve even further, include her into all bets.
