7 Supreme Judge
3 Matt's Warrior
2 Grey Warrior

Race Preview: Above The Horizon has shown improvement with each start. He tries the Polytrack and should make a bold bid at beating some modest rivals. Grey Warrior did not show much on his recent turf debut but does have Richard Fourie in the irons and can make vast improvement. Matt's Warrior is a son of Querari and he does not have to be too good to beat these rivals on debut. Supreme Judge was not disgraced when trying this surface and could go one better.

Race Preview: Buddleja, Mind Freeze and Priceless Treasure are carded to run on Friday 19 April on the turf and those runs will need to be looked at. Trainer Alan Greeff has a good record with Canford Cliffs-bred juveniles and Make Believe is another that could win on debut. City Of Dreams is carded to run on 22 April so check that run out as it is on this surface.

Race Preview: Twilight Bay was not disgraced on her local debut. She has done well on this surface and should make a bold bid at beating these rivals. Elegant Appeal struggled on the turf last time out. She did better on her penultimate start which was on this surface and she can be a threat. Laugh Till I Cry is unreliable but is also capable of earning some money. Midwicket was not disgraced when trying the Polytrack last time out and should have more to offer. Duchess Of Seville is well drawn and can fight out the finish yet again. Preserve Forever makes her local debut and could be a threat.

Race Preview: Slainte Mhath is unreliable but is the pick in a very competitive Classified Stakes. He won well first time with blinkers but did not repeat it last time out. Haarlem has improved under the care of trainer Alan Greeff and should be a serious challenger trying the Polytrack. Head Gardener has been good all season and would not be a surprise winner. Home Reef showed vast improvement last time out but is clearly very unreliable. Oranjemund tries the Polytrack and has a place chance. San Quintin, Reach Forthe Stars and Rainbow Of Roses are all capable of winning.

Race Preview: Le Premiere makes her local debut but is well drawn and would not be a surprise winner. Strata has quickened up nicely to win her last two starts and is well drawn for her first crack on the Polytrack. Her Royalty disappointed on the turf last time out but was good on this surface before that. Havana Grey is unreliable but capable of a surprise. Enchanting Lady ran well on her local debut but is not well drawn this time. Jade's Caberneigh is not reliable but is another to consider.

Eyjafjalajokull needs a patient ride but is capable of winning again. Moving In showed some promise last time and is not out of it. Whatever Next does not always show his best form but can be involved with the finish once again. Linkin Navigator could improve trying the Polytrack. Dubai Hills was a good winner last time out and can follow up if in the same mood. Silvonian is not reliable but is also not out of it.

Catch Your Breath has been a bitter disappointment of late but does have Richard Fourie back in the irons. Polynomial and Protect The Dream are capable of better than what they showed in their latest starts. Call To Glory was an easy winner last time out and does have ability but does not always show it. State Secret and Volare E Mambo could also get into the mix of things.

	5 Princess Palace 20%		1 Greenhouse 1:38.60

Race Preview: Givers Grace gets the services of in-form rider Andrew Fortune and brings solid form into the race. Sunshine Day has been sliding down in the ratings and should go close to getting it all right. Forward Motion clearly has ability and is one for the shortlist and Alphabetty should be in the first four.

Race Preview: Kadzora is ultra-consistent and looks ready to record her next career win. She gets a neat draw and Muzi Yeni again. Basie Raakvat ran an attractive race last time, has solid overall form and should, again, give a very good account of himself. King Bavarian can finish in the first three and is a natural inclusion for the trifecta play and Mountainsofthemoon should be in the shake-up.

Race Preview: Victor Rail ran a good race last time and can be expected to get much closer now. Bright winning chance. Purple Powahouse nearly won on the 6th of this month and should go very close again - big runner. Arverni Princess is the value for the places and should be worth including in all bets. Griffin Park showed last time that he is on the comeback trail - quartet must.
